HAPPINESS IS 4-H

By Frank H. Sweet
Extension Agent

Several 4-H'ers have been working on one of the toughest tasks for a Senior 4-H'er -- completing an Achievement Record. The completed records were sent to the State 4-H Office this past Monday. Records were done by: Ernie Chenault, Rhonda Nash, Susan Parris, Allen Smith, David Caldwell, Laurie McLean, Susan Shorter, Tamara Nash, Lisa Moore, Cheryl Walton and Joe Ford.

An achievement record is a total listing of all the projects and activities that a member has taken part in throughout their career. Achievement records provide the method through which members are selected for trips to National 4-H Congress in Chicago and National Scholarships.

All 4-H'ers who are 14 or older are eligible to submit achievement records each year. Younger 4-H'ers can help prepare themselves by keeping up with their completed projects and taking part in as many 4-H programs as possible.

4-H'ers at Appomattox Elementary School will assist with a special talent show for that school's PTA meeting on February 14. This is another excellent opportunity for our 4-H'ers to display their talents.

* * *

Public Speaking Workshops will be held today (Thursday) at Appomattox Middle School and next Tuesday and Thursday at Appomattox Elementary School. Workshops will be held in the school libraries and will begin at 3:30 p.m. 4-H'ers may stay for the workshops and receive help on their speeches.

The National 4-H Council has voted to keep the 4-H theme "Freedom to Be" through the 1978 year. Normally a new 4-H theme is chosen each year, but due to the National acceptance of the 1977 theme, it will be carried another year.

4-H'ers of the Week: Those members who completed and turned in Achievement Records. Congratulations!

The new location of the H. H. Moore, Jr. Trucking Company, located on 460 just west of Appomattox.

Thirty-Two Years Of Trucking

The 1940's were busy, productive years for H. H. Moore Jr. and his wife, Evelyn, of the H. H. Moore Jr. Trucking Company.

H. H. Born and reared in Appomattox County was married in 1940 to the former Evelyn Martin also a native of Appomattox County.

Their children, Wayne, Teddy, Larry, and Bonnie (Mrs. Robert E. Pankey) were born within a ten-year period, the 1940's, of course.

In 1946 H. H. decided that there might be some money in the trucking business. So, with one truck, a brand new green Ford, purchased from John S Grinels, then the Ford Dealer in Appomattox County, and driving it himself, H. H.was in business. They dubbed it the "lime truck".

From one truck and one driver to a business with thirty-five employees, twenty-three tractors, and fifty van-trailers, there has been, without a doubt, a lot of hard work and careful planning for the company to have achieved the degree of success they can now proudly claim.

"All we have to offer is service" are the words of H. H. Moore Jr. and that service, we know, is good.

Beginning as a family business, the company has remained basically the same. H. H. Moore, Jr. is president and manager; Teddy, vice-president and assistant manager; Wayne, vice-president and head mechanic; Evelyn, secretary and treasurer; Patsy, (Mrs. Teddy Moore), secretary for four years; and Rita, (Mrs. Larry Moore), is part time secretary.

Beginning in 1952, Moore Trucking hauled grade A milk, in cans, for a period of twenty-two years. The milk was picked up at the J. E. Sears Locker in Appomattox and taken to Newport News, Virginia. In time they purchased a milk tanker. Accoring to Mrs. Moore, they didn't miss a single day of delivery in the twenty-two year period. They may have been late a time or two because of bad weather.

Shortly the H. H. Moore Jr. Trucking Company will move into their new building on Rt. 460, just west of Appomattox.

H. H.'s success shows what hard work, determination and of course, continued good service to his customers, can achieve over a period of 32 years. Maybe we had better not forget all the help from his family; according to Mrs. Moore, without the continued cooperation of the family, they might not have made it.

Congratulation to a good business, getting better all the time!

NOTICE

People contemplating a house of their own should be aware that there is an alternative to the brick boxes that seem to pop up overnight like mushrooms. Now, and more so in the future, a house that takes advantage of natural materials, site, trees, and, perhaps most important, design, will be the house that endures any "test of time".

My work is to help people find their connection between themselves and their life-shelter. I'd be happy to talk about any aspect of your intentions to design/draft a home that is in harmony with the world of today.

Junior Woman's Club Held Arts And Crafts Show

The Appomattox Junior Woman's Club met January 25 at the Farmers National Bank, Triangle Plaza Branch. The guest speaker for the evening was Ms. Diane Hall, Assistant Trust Officer with Fidelity American Bank in Lynchburg. Her talk was entitled "Wills and Estate Planning."

This topic was presented as an outgrowth of the Education Department in an effort to make club members aware of the importance of planning for the future.

In addition to the program, the meeting included the Annual Arts & Crafts Show. Judges for the contest were Mrs. Shirley Walton, Ms. Pat Hudson and Mrs. Susan Williams.

Linda Jo Mays won a blue ribbon for her pillow in the quilting category. In the Decorative Crafts category, Theresa Godsey won blue ribbons for her oil painting and her reverse painting on glass and a yellow ribbon for her water color. Betty Jo Smith won a red ribbon for her bread plaque.

In the decoupage category, Carolyn Thompson won a blue ribbon and a red ribbon for two of her religious plaques and a yellow ribbon for her fruit plaque.

Many of the works made by these talented members will be entered in the State Arts and Crafts Contest.

On Honor List At Chowan College

MURFREESBORO, N.C. - Thomas M. Wingfield of Appomattox, is one of 98 students included on the Honors List for academic achievement during the fall semester at Chowan College.

The students earned the honor by achieving a B average with no grade lower than a C. Mr. Wingfield is the son of Richard L. Wingfield and a graduate of Appomattox County High School.

Chowan honors students in two other categories. Eight students were named to the President's List for straight A work. Thirty-seven students maintained a grade average between 3. 50-3. 99 on a 4.00 system and were named to the Dean's List.

During the fall semester a total of 143 students representing approximately 15% of Chowan's enrollment earned a place on one of the three honors lists.

Chowan is a Baptist, two-year coeducational college. Chowan offers opportunities in 11 professional fields; business, English, fine arts (music, dance, art), graphic arts, photography, health and physical education, languages, mathematics, religion and philosophy, science and social science.

Campbell County Little Theatre Will Present Suspense Drama

The Campbell County Little Theater will present the suspense drama "Wait Until Dark".

The schedule for performances will be as follows: Friday, Feb. 3, at Brookville Middle School; Saturday, Feb. 4 at Altavista High School and Saturday, Feb. 18, at William Campbell High School.

All performances begin at 8 p.m. The play may be presented in the Rustburg area, however, date and place will be announced later.

This outstanding play by Fredrick Knott provides an evening of suspense which will help cure the "winter blah's". The story involves a blind girl, a young housewife learning to be independent with the help of her husband, who falls victim to a scheme by three con men who are ex-convicts. The plot builds to one of the most exciting climaxes in modern literature.

Playing the part of Suzy, the young housewife, is Jojo Silver of Lynchburg who has been active in theater and the arts for several years. She recently played the starring role of Lola in the Campbell County Little Theater production of "Damn Yankees". Playing the part of the crooks will be Mike Daniels of Brookneal as Mike, Calvin (Pete) Candler of Brookville as Rost, and Richard Sealey of Lynchburg as Carlino. Suzy's husband, Sam, will be played by Keith Stevens of Rustburg, and Gloria, the little girl from upstairs who helps Suzy, is played by Vicky Moore of Brookneal. The two policemen are Roy Alfred and Elwood Moorefield.

Admission may be paid at the door. For further information call the Campbell County Recreation Department.
